SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

Musical.—The members of St. Paul's M. E. church were entertained by Mrs. A. T. Hammons Tuesday evening. The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johns, who recently returned from a year's travel abroad. Dainty refreshments were served and a most delightful evening was devoted to music.

Applies for Admission.—Norman J. Johnson of Globe has applied to the clerk of the supreme court for admission to the bar.—Arizona Gazette.

A Correction.—In the suit of Feland vs. Edwards, tried in Justice Thomas' court on Monday, Attorney Julian M. Richardson represented the plaintiff, instead of McCurdy, as reported yesterday.

New Photo Gallery.—Woodbridge & Rich, the photographers who did the school work here, have decided to locate in Globe and have secured a studio near the Alexander theater.

Removed.—C. D. Cinaratti has moved his bargain store to the Van Wagenen block, in the vicinity of the Acme hotel, and will add a large stock.

Girl Baby.—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Conyales are the proud parents of a pretty girl baby, which arrived at their home on Monday. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Fined Eight Dollars.—Allen Joyce, arrested Tuesday night at the Tie Sang restaurant charged with creating a disturbance, was fined $8 in Judge Thomas' court yesterday. Joyce claimed that he had been abused by a man in the restaurant and felt called upon to defend himself. Witnesses did not agree with the young man and his conviction followed.

Ole Smith Discharged.—Ole Smith, the saloon man arrested a number of days ago, charged with receiving stolen property, was, on motion of the district attorney, discharged in Justice Thomas' court yesterday. Smith was specifically charged with buying a quantity of cigars stolen by Ed Hodges from the Palace drug store. Hodges testified yesterday that Smith did not purchase the cigars from him, and with this evidence in the case against Smith was dismissed. Maher, who was arrested on a similar charge, was discharged a number of days ago, there being no evidence to connect him with the crime.

Arthur Out on Bond.—Joe Arthur, who has been confined in the county jail for a number of days charged with embezzlement, made bond in the sum of $500 yesterday and was released from custody. Arthur, who was treasurer of the barbers' union, is charged with being $110 short in his accounts. It is said that an effort is being made to settle the case, and in that instance the criminal prosecution will probably be withdrawn.

'33' for Ruth.—Ruth Baum, a resident of the tenderloin, arrested a number of days ago, charged with violating ordinance No. 33, the health enactment, will be arraigned in Justice Thomas' court this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The validity of the ordinance will be attacked.

Held to Grand Jury.—The Mexican who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Henderson October 11, charged with selling whisky to an Indian, was arraigned yesterday before United States Commissioner Martin and held to the federal grand jury in the sum of $500. He was unable to make bond and was committed to the Globe county jail. On the day of the arrest the officer found an Indian carrying an open book across his breast. He mistrusted an illicit sale of whisky and, pulling down the book, found the bottle. The Indian straightway pointed out the Mexican who had sold him the stuff and his arrest followed. The Indian was present yesterday to testify.

Brown & Scanlan Sell Out.—Brown & Scanlan, who have been conducting a grocery, fuel and feed business at 255 S. Broad street for a number of years past, yesterday disposed of their entire business interests to George B. Gamble and C. G. McInroy, who will conduct the business in the future under the firm style of Gamble & McInroy. The new firm has secured a lease on the buildings and grounds for one year. Mr. Gamble recently came to Globe from Solomonville and Mr. McInroy has been employed in the city as a bookkeeper. Messrs. Brown and Scanlan have not announced their future intentions. The Silver Belt speaks a good business for the new firm.

Hymeneal.—Tonight at 8 o'clock at the Episcopal church, Rev. George Shelby officiating, Miss Eula Hull and Mr. Roland H. Jacobs will be united in marriage. The wedding will be one of the most brilliant in the annals of the city.

Council Meeting Tonight.—City council will meet in regular session tonight. There is a bare possibility that an ordinance or resolution will be passed authorizing the grading of the east side of Broad street between Cedar and Mesquite. It is understood that this step will be necessary before the work can be done; and then the city will probably be up against a damage suit.

'Quail on Toast.'—On quite a number of menu cards in city hotels and restaurants "quail on toast" is conspicuously printed. The managers of these places are taking chances on a $300 fine and a term of six months in the county jail, as the Arizona law strictly prohibits the vending of quail or other birds or wild animals, used for food, in any form. This law applies to hotels and restaurants, as well as markets.

Big Quail Shoot.—A. G. Smith, E. H. Franz, Jerry Elliott and C. G. Mardorf went out for a big quail hunt last Sunday. Cashier Smith is sure that Franz dismantled four quails of the small size. Franz witnessed the slaughter of two by Elliott at short range. Lawyer Elliott believes that Mardorf used too many shot to the load to bring down twenty-three and that galling guns ought to be ruled out. The trio says Smith scared one quail to death and had salt when he caught the other one.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Spencer D. Wright, president of the Warrior Copper company, and Ernest L. Tustin, a director of the same company, left yesterday morning for Philadelphia after spending several days at the mine.

W. T. and H. F. Wright and their sister, Mrs. R. H. Simmons, left yesterday morning for Owensboro, Ky., following the receipt of information that their mother, Mrs. J. H. Christian, was very ill with pneumonia.

George A. Laird, the well known mining engineer, returned to Bisbee yesterday after spending a few days in the city on business. This was Mr. Laird's first visit to the Globe district and he was very favorably impressed with the properties he visited.

the testimony he will introduce to prove an alibi.

Should Mr. James survive today and continue to show the same improvement noted yesterday, it is quite likely that Backner will be formally charged with making an assault with intent to murder and that on Friday he will be taken before Judge Thomas for a hearing. He has not as yet retained the services of an attorney. He addressed a letter yesterday to his wife, and it is quite likely that he has notified her of the trouble he is in.

federal grand jury in the Indian Territory district. Despite the fact that his whereabouts was well known the officers made no effort to arrest him, and the indictment was pigeonholed in the office of the United States marshal. Recently, so the story goes, some fresh young deputy who wanted to make a record, dug up the warrant and forwarded it to Globe for service. Deputy Hiatt, not knowing anything of the merits of the case, did his full duty in making the service.

After coming to Arizona McIntyre took up some land near Solomonville and prospered as a rancher. He later came to Globe, where he engaged extensively in teaming, and at the time of his arrest was manager of one of the leading markets of the city.

SCHOOL TROUBLE IN NORTH GLOBE

A majority of the residents favor the present site, on the grounds that 74 per cent of the children live east of Broad street and there is already a ten-room schoolhouse west of that thoroughfare, the Central school. With the two new schools, one of which is about completed in East Globe, it will give two five-room schoolhouses east of Broad street for the 74 per cent as against the ten-room school west of Broad for the 26 per cent. The city will be petitioned to build a bridge from Pascoe hill to Nottsgar hill, so that children residing south of Nottsgar hill can get to school without going down town or passing the tenderloin district. Protests at this time are considered untimely, owing to the fact that much property was purchased last June, when the intentions of the school trustees were made known.

STOCK MARKET SHOWS SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT

The stock market was a little firmer yesterday. Coppers advanced a fraction of a point and the general tone was better. The following were the closing quotations:

Case of Lockjaw Puzzles Physicians

Physicians who attended Lawrence Bittancourt, who died two days ago with the lockjaw, are mystified with his case. It has always been the supposition that the tetanus germs enter the human system through some abrasion of the skin or wound. Bittancourt, however, had met with no mishap of an accidental character, and there was not a scratch anywhere on his skin. He was well and hearty Sunday morning, but Sunday evening was suddenly seized with the disease, and nothing could be found to relieve him.—Tacoma dispatch to the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

We read in all the papers, north, east, south and west, That Globe as a mining center is ahead of all the rest; And when it comes to climate, we've got it mountain high, From the valleys, rich and verdant, to the peaks up near the sky Where the sun each day is shining and the heavens ever blue, Wafts the ozone pure and fragrant, as a rich old wine to you.
Our ad man says he has spent many years and many dollars in travel to find the only Globe on the globe, where the financial and climatic conditions are just a "few" better for the homeseeker and speculator than anywhere else on this old globe.
